O R D E R

This revision petition is preferred against the order of the Munsiff, Thrissur whereby it directed arrest warrant against the judgment debtor with a direction to the decree holder to point out him. This Court on 4.8.06 granted a conditional stay on payment of Rs.3,000/- to the decree holder. The decree holder has entered appearance before this Court also and it is submitted that Rs.3,000/- had been paid. Now the balance according to them is not very much and the decree holder has no objection in granting some instalment facility with the usual default clause for payment of the amount. The revision petitioner also undertakes to pay the amount. Therefore, the C.R.P. is disposed of as follows.

2. The revision petitioner is directed to pay the balance amount in three monthly equal instalments commencing from 23.11.07. If he commits default of one or more instalments the decree holder is at liberty to request the Court for issuance of warrant for detention against him in the civil prison. In order to facilitate the judgment debtor to pay the amount the order of arrest shall stand deferred for the above said period.

M.N. KRISHNAN, JUDGE.
